MISCELLANEOUS

The eighteenth session of the South Africa Mission Conference was held at Fair View Mission Station, Umzumbi, Natal, South Africa, March 28-April 1, 1923. This session was unique in that it elected three presidents. Jules Ryff was elected at the close of last conference to serve during the year, and at this session. As he had gone home on furlough and the missionaries decided to meet a day before conference, so that more time could be given to prayer and consideration of matters pertaining to the work, Carroll Smith was chosen as president for the first day. Next morning in conference J. W. Haley was chosen to preside during the session and A. M. Anderson for the coming year.

The native delegates and visitors numbered well over one hundred persons and it is remarkable how the Christians look forward to these gatherings and enjoy entertaining them.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Iowa Conference was held at Morning Sun, Iowa, August 22-25, 1923. This was the fiftieth session. To Rev. R. T. Fine, our local pastor, his band of willing helpers and to the people of the town we are indebted for the comfortable entertainment and their generous spirit of hospitality.

The business sittings and also the evangelistic services were held in the new high school auditorium. Bishop David S. Warner presided over the conference and preached several times with the help of the Spirit. We appreciated Brother Warner's presence and labors among us once more.

Among those who attended the conference were Rev. D. G. Shepard and Rev. J. Q. Murray, of the Southern California Conference, and Rev. Wilson R. King, of the Genesee Conference. Each of these brethren preached.

A missionary service was held on Sunday afternoon and Sister Lillie Agnew, one of our missionaries on furlough from South Africa, gave a soul-stirring address on our work in that field.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON STATE OF THE WORK

ST. JOHNS DISTRICT

By a vote of the annual conference and the decree of the stationing committee, we were sent last fall to the Saint Johns District. We succeeded in getting on the field the second week after conference, and were most cordially received by both ministry and laity.

We went forward, not with a conqueror's tread, but in much weakness and fear. The field was large, the work that "would fill an angel's heart or fill the Savior's hand," and the responsibility, God alone knew how great. "But having received help of the Lord we continue unto this day."

As we come at this time to review the state of the work on the district there are things whereby we are humbled before the Lord; then there are things for which we rejoice. There have been no cyclones, earthquakes or tornadoes, but the Lord has greatly blessed and encouraged His people.

There have been some good revivals on the district which resulted in the quickening of the church, the reclaiming of backsliders, and the salvation of a few sinners. The general gatherings have been especially owned of God, and great spiritual force has come to the people as a result. The preachers have labored hard during the year. Some of them have not seen the desire of their hearts, but theirs will be the reward of a faithful sower. The laity are in love with our doctrines and issues, and generally speaking are giving of their means for the support of the same, while there is a minority that are rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing but a spirit of generosity, the failure of which is causing stagnation in some parts of the work.

A new parsonage was purchased at Corunna. Aside from this there has been nothing extensive by way of repairs or building. Thus another year has flown. A new one is at hand. We face it with courage and a feeling that good is the will of God.

H. E. LEININGER.

FLINT DISTRICT

I was returned to the Flint District for the second year. Three weeks after conference I was taken sick with typhoid fever and for nearly two months was confined to my bed and home. During this time the brethren of the district kindly held the quarterly meetings.

In looking back over the year and taking a survey of the work on the district, we feel devoutly thankful to the Giver of all good, who has blessed His people temporally and spiritually.

Our temporal blessings have been manifest in the Lord sparing all of the circuit preachers and in the improvement of old churches and the finishing of one new church.

In Flint the property has been improved at both churches. At First Church nearly $1,500 has been expended in enlarging the basement and putting in two Sabbath-school rooms, a ladies rest room, two sanitary toilets and converting the barn into a double garage. A new garage has been built at Second Church at a cost of over $300. At Durand electric lights were placed in the parsonage and a bath tub put in. At Fenton the church that was started last year has been completed and was dedicated recently by Bishop Warner. At Montrose the parsonage has been repainted on the outside and redecorated on the inside. The church and parsonage at Otisville have been repainted. At Lum extensive repairs have been made to church and parsonage, and at the last district meeting at Lum money was raised to install a furnace in the parsonage. This circuit suffered a loss in the burning of the church at Burnside. On the Oxford charge arrangements have been made to move the church from Hadley to the village of Oxford, where our people have a lot bought and paid for. At Pontiac $10,000 has been expended in enlarging and improving the church. Of this amount all has been paid but $600 which is covered by $900 in good subscriptions. This improvement makes it the best arranged church in the conference, for Sabbath-school work, that the writer has been in. The church property on the charges that have not been mentioned are in a good condition, with small, if any, indebtedness.

Turning from the temporal, we wish to mention the loyalty of preachers and laity to the principles of Free Methodism. We note no disposition on the part of the preachers to let down the bars of the Discipline or to lower the standards of Bible truth or interfere with the freedom of the Holy Spirit. As false doctrines become more evident in the world—higher criticism, evolution, etc., our preachers and laity manifest a disposition to take a more positive stand in defense of the doctrines of the Bible.

On nearly all the circuits special meetings were held, resulting in some fruit being gathered into the church. I have not been able to do as aggressive work on the district as I desired because of my sickness. The flu among the people and the necessity for the district tents being at Corunna early for the General Conference resulted in no camp meetings and only one tent meeting held on the district during the year. The tent meeting was held at Romeo by Brother Beskin and resulted in the organization of a small society.

While we regret that more was not accomplished for the Master, yet we praise Him for all that has been done. We thank God for the love and unity that prevails on the district. It has been a pleasure to labor with these brethren. The quarterly meetings have been seasons of blessing and victory. Many times the shouts of the saints drowned the voice of the preachers. One was reminded of quarterly meetings attended over thirty years ago. Lord, give us more of this blessed power.

A. D. WARREN.

PORT HURON DISTRICT

The year 1922 and 1923 has been a peculiar year in the work on Port Huron District. Shortly after conference came the terrible scourge of typhoid fever. Our people were stricken with it from one end of the district to the other. By securing a good nurse Brother and Sister Middaugh were saved, but Sister Middaugh has not been strong to do her accustomed work for most of the year. On the Bad Axe and Bingham circuit several deaths occurred and for several months of the year about all that could be done on the circuit was to care for the sick.

January 19 while attending my quarterly meeting at Memphis I fell on the icy sidewalk and injured my head, and March 7 I went to bed at the home of Brother Brown in Port Huron and was stricken with paralysis and have been unable to hold quarterly meetings until about the last month before conference.

The preachers on the district and a number from other districts have kindly assisted in the work and all the quarterly meetings have been held. These meetings have generally been spiritual and proved a means of grace.

He in whose service we have been engaged understands it all and I believe we have done the best we could with conditions as they have been. The preachers have been abundant in labors, caring for their circuits and assisting the district elder in his work. Harmony and brotherly love have prevailed.

Because of General Conference being so near, no camp meeting has been held. Our four general quarterly meetings of the year have proved a blessing and were well attended, except the first, where the attendance was small because of the fever conditions. Revival meetings have been held on most of the circuits during the year which resulted in a number being converted and in the quickening of the church.

Some improvements have been made in the way of building. At Port Huron a fine parsonage has been erected and nearly all the money to pay for it has been paid or is provided in good subscriptions. At Marine City the old store building we have used for a church has been sold, a new location purchased with two large lots half a block from the car line in a good location and a nice little house on one lot which makes a good parsonage. On the lot beside the parsonage a neat church has been built and dedicated. We now have the best church property in Marine City we have ever had and I believe the prospect is good for our work there.

Eventful as the year has been, it has gone into history and we leave it to our successor, to God and the church. There are many excellent pilgrims on the Port Huron District. We have good preachers also, but as we have finished our fourth year we say farewell and look toward other fields of labor. All of which is respectfully submitted.

BAY CITY DISTRICT

The Bay City District comprises thirteen circuits and a number of points where new fields are ripe for harvest. At Bay City the work has come up materially and prospects are good for another year. At Saginaw we have a flourishing society and there is a strong spirit of aggressiveness and a constant revival effort. At Fraser there has been a fairly good year. The Highwood circuit has been encouraged by substantial reinforcements. The Midland circuit has had a most gracious revival. The Luman and Coleman circuit has had some victory and future prospects look bright. At Gladwin and West Grout we have one of the best circuits on the district; the all-day prayer meetings and constant revival efforts have brought excellent results. The Hockaday and Sherman circuit was greatly shocked at the first of the year by the death of their beloved pastor, Rev. C. E. Roberts. Later the work was ably supplied and at both points there are marks of legitimate Free Methodism.

On the Nestor and Canfield circuit at a new point we saw fourteen seekers at the altar—all forward for holiness. At West Branch there has been excellent work done. One church was dedicated at our last district meeting of the conference year. At Siloam we have suffered from a number leaving for the cities. The pastor is untiring in his efforts to advance the cause of God. At Rose City the year closed with victory. A number sought God in our last quarterly meeting. Personally I have had most excellent health and above all the blessing of the Lord. Amen.

A. J. STEVENS.

ALPENA DISTRICT

In the providence of God we have been permitted to labor during the past year within the bounds of the Alpena District, which extends from the Au Sable River on the south to Sheboygan on the north, and from Lake Huron on the east to the meridian on the west.

Amid the many discouragements and hardships attending the itineracy and especially the frontier work, we have had many tokens and manifestations of God's love and presence during the past year. The preachers as a whole have been earnest in their endeavors in winning souls to Christ, and spreading holiness through the northland. While the work this year has been greatly hindered on account of the long, hard winter, and the interruption caused by the General Conference, we have seen some good accomplished and some souls gloriously saved that we believe will live and shine for God through time and eternity. Since we only had three circuits with regular preachers two years ago, and now have seven, we do not feel that the efforts and labors of God's people have been altogether in vain in the Lord.

We do not believe the credit is due alone to the faithful work of the laborers in the north, but a part of it to those in the south who have so earnestly prayed for and given of their means to support the work on the missionary district.

Our general gatherings have been well attended considering the size of the district, and have been seasons of great refreshing.

God has indeed signally attended and blessed us in nearly all of our district and quarterly meetings, and souls have been saved and sanctified. God has graciously opened the way during the past year for us to purchase a lot and build a church in Wolverine, which we expect to have completed and ready to dedicate before winter. This is a very needy and promising field.

We consider the Alpena District one of the most needy and promising fields in the whole Free Methodist Church.

A. L. HAYWOOD.

MISCELLANEOUS

The twenty-fifth session of the Oklahoma Conference convened at Kingfisher, Oklahoma, August 15, 1923. Bishop William Pearce presided. It was held in connection with the state camp meeting in the city park. The meetings were well attended and were generally considered as characterized with deeper harmony and brotherly love and a greater manifestation of the Holy Spirit in the saving and sanctifying of souls and the building up of the saints in the holy faith than in years past. This was largely due to the fact that there was more praying and fasting and a deeper tone of piety than in recent sessions.

Bishop Pearce presided in his usual able manner. His addresses to the conference were very timely and much appreciated, and his sermons marked with great ability, freedom and power. His general bearing was a fine example of kindness, impartiality and dignity well blended.

Evangelist E. E. Shelhamer, of the Southern California Conference, en route to an eastern appointment, stopped over with us about the middle of the meeting. He filled the pulpit every evening but one till the meeting closed. Every one felt he was sent of the Lord and his heart-searching sermons brought forth fruit unto life eternal to many souls and a deeper experience to many of the saints.

President C. A. Stoll, of Central College, represented the school in an able way and took subscriptions for the financial aid of the college.

Miss Alice Evans, returned missionary from Africa, represented the missionary interests, and conducted a very interesting and effective service on Sunday afternoon, taking a substantial cash offering and subscriptions for the missionary work.

MISCELLANEOUS

The fifty-ninth annual session of the Michigan Conference was held at Ann Arbor, Michigan, in the Free Methodist Church, August 15-18, 1923. Bishop W. A. Sellew, our senior bishop, presided with perfect satisfaction to all and with his beloved wife was a great blessing to the conference.

The pastor at Ann Arbor with his faithful wife and the pilgrims and friends were abundant in labors in looking after the entertainment of the conference which was no small job, as there were over two hundred in attendance, all being permitted to attend from the conference who desired to, as it has always been customary.

The usual spirit of liberality prevailed during the conference. Over $500 was raised in cash and subscriptions toward the support of a conference evangelist.

Miss Helen I. Root, from India, was with us and proved a great blessing to all. Her earnest address given Sunday afternoon at which time over $1,000 was raised for missions, will not be forgotten. We join in saying, Please come again.

A service was held by Professor Stewart in the interests of Spring Arbor Seminary, at which time over $100 was given to meet pressing bills. Sunday morning before preaching over $1,900 was provided for in cash and subscriptions toward the debt on the parsonage at Ann Arbor.

A spirit of "love divine all loves excelling" was manifest during the conference. A few sought and found pardon or purity.

H. Montgomery was elected as a committeeman to meet the Executive Committee at its next meeting and request that the territory embracing Fernaldale, a suburb of Detroit, be included within the boundary of the Michigan Conference.

H. Montgomery and J. G. Fortress were nominated to be elected as trustees of the Spring Arbor Seminary and Junior College.

The conference requested that the following amounts be granted to the various circuits by the General Missionary Board from general mission funds the coming year: Sherwood, $50; Hudson and Ransom, $50; Lawrence and Decatur, $50; Benton Harbor, $50.

The board of trustees of Spring Arbor Seminary were requested to plot lots on the seminary farm and if possible secure a lot sold by them some time ago and open same as a street on which to plot lots for sale.

The conference took action that an Easter offering be raised on each circuit for the Woodstock Homes, and the secretary was instructed to write the management of the Homes and request that no further canvass be made of the conference the coming year on account of the campaign that will be on to secure funds for a new school building at Spring Arbor.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

I.—ON REFORMS

If the word reform means, as we understand it, to bring into a new shape or course, to correct, to change from worse to better, to mend, then, realizing the need of such work, we still stand for reform. In fact, we as a church stand second to none in this respect. There are many things that have been the target of the pulpit and pen of the reformers that still wage war on righteousness with unabated fervor, and when you think they are nearly crushed, will arise to new strength. One has said that "The room for improvement is the largest room in the world." We must continue unfriendly toward sin and friendly toward Bible holiness in order to maintain our prestige as a sin-hating, God-loving holiness church and enjoy God's presence, protection and power. Following are a few reforms we would emphasize:

Sabbath desecration—This is prevalent everywhere. Nothing should be done on the Lord's day that would violate its sanctity. We are pained at the growing tendency to profane it by the buying and selling of milk; preparing big dinners, buying the Sunday newspaper, pleasure riding and conversing about secular things or thinking about them. The time spent in Sunday visitation steals away the time for meditation. Take time to be holy; spend much time in prayer. The reformed auto is one great need of the hour. It is responsible for the absence of the one-time Brother Faithful, now Brother Absentee. Once satisfied to push the battle at home, now away from the needy home church, enjoying a meeting somewhere else.

Divorce problem—We would advise the discouraging as far as possible the early waiting upon those of the opposite sex. There are over a thousand boys married every year in this fair land of ours under the age of fifteen years. The fearful results of this are too manifest in ruined lives, sorrowful homes and wrecked humanity all along the way. Loose divorce laws are largely at fault.

Dress—Over-dress and lack of dress is to be deplored. We fear that we can see a little drift in this respect in our midst. The natural tendency to follow the leadership of others is so easily cultivated that we are apt to fall into the habit of doing as they do, regardless of our earlier convictions. We will do well to have our articles of dress or undress only such as will meet the approval of the Holy Spirit and not cause us to feel condemned in the society of the pilgrims. Pride is the tap root of the dress question. There is no time to be dabbling with the freakish fashions of this sinful world. Suggestive fashions are abhorred, believing that modesty, virtue and spirituality are closely united, and we would warn against the immodest, immoral and Spirit-grieving fashions of the day. The immodest styles of the stage are now the accepted standards of respectable society. This is bad enough, but when professed Christians accept its undress styles, the condition is alarming. The bare necks, bare arms, bobbed hair and fancy dressed hair of the underworld has no place among our Free Methodists. We must insist that our pastors hold to the line of separation which has been characteristic of Free Methodism. Our future is in danger when we can not distinguish between Free Methodist young people and those apostate.

II.—ON EDUCATION

"Education is defined as the systematic development and cultivation of the normal powers of intellect, feeling, and conduct, so as to render them efficient in some particular form of living, or for life in general."

The Bible suggests to attain this that "We study to show ourselves approved unto God, a workman who need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

In these days it is of great moment that Christian education fill the large place in the world's needs. We as a church are not merely given the option of taking a part here, but it is demanded of us.

Destructive criticism making its inroads into the minds of the youth of our land causes their minds to lose faith. We appreciate the struggles that have been waged by our fathers to meet the need of the church at this time more than ever before. But as the enemy has come forth more openly and has planted the teachings of evolution and Higher Criticism of the Bible in the higher institutions of learning, we must meet this by a greater effort and sacrifice if necessary.

We appreciate our schools and publications and every effort now used. But we must put on a program that is greater than ever before. We must not let our schools be handicapped by lack of funds or equipment, when we see the great strides of worldly institutions under the name of Christian which are filled with teachings so dangerous to the faith of our young people.

We can not say to our young people you must not enter these higher institutions of education. But we can fortify them in our academies and colleges so that their hearts will be fixed.

We appreciate the plans for Spring Arbor Seminary and Junior College suggested by the board of trustees at their last meeting. But we as a conference can tie their hands so that all we get will be plans and our young people must still live in rooms unsanitary and uninviting. The poorest people in our church most of them have better homes than the young people who have left (modern homes) to come to Spring Arbor for schooling purposes. Had we better rooms and equipment many of the large problems that confront the faculty of our schools would be eliminated.

Let us build new buildings, remodel the old and equip the entire institution so that the workers may be at their best and the students may be surrounded with some of the comforts of home and facilities for the best training possible. To this end be it resolved that we welcome the solicitors for Spring Arbor Junior College to our circuits and help them to raise sufficient funds to make our school second to none.

We feel in this territory of patronizing conferences we can easily put on a program that will quickly accomplish these things.

We appreciate the deep spirituality that pervades our school at Spring Arbor and we feel that we should pray especially while the school is in session for the salvation of the students sojourning there.

We feel that a wise move is offered by the trustees of Spring Arbor in giving a junior college course, but we must have proper equipment and teachers.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON STATE OF THE WORK

A consideration of the work of the Lord among us during the past year will lead us to many occasions of praise and thanksgiving. The year has been one of special favors from the hand of God. There has been a revival spirit over the various districts and a number of good revivals have been reported during the year. In spite of the devil and his agents and the perilous times in which we are living we have not only been able to hold our own, but have added to our numbers. Some of the older societies are reporting an increase, and several new societies have been organized—Elnora, West Baden, Monroe City and Camargo. Also two beautiful and substantial churches have been built.

We hope the tendency over the conference to bring up the pastor's allowance will increase more and more until all our pastors will receive a fair salary and be able to devote their entire time to the work of the Lord, for none can do justice to God's work if he is obliged to work for his support. We feel that none of our preachers should do outside work unless it is absolutely necessary.

There is some complaint because our pastors do not visit more. We believe that no part of a pastor's work is more profitable than visiting. Our Discipline says, "And what avails public preaching alone? Though we could preach like angels, we must, yea, every traveling preacher must instruct the people from house to house."

Our district meetings have been a means of blessing, though we are sorry to say that some manifest little or no interest in these general gatherings. We urge all our ministers not to hinder but in every way possible rally the official members to attend these gatherings and make them seasons of power.

We trust that no spirit of criticism or fault-finding will creep in among our ministry or laity to destroy the harmony and mar the fellowship, for these things grieve the Spirit and greatly hinder the work of God. We thank God for the hopeful things and call attention to the less hopeful, only that they may be bettered and greater prosperity follow.

Concerning the laity, we are pleased to report that a spirit of loyalty to the church and her doctrines prevails. Our people believe in the fire and many of them enjoy the experience of holiness and testify to it. We are glad to say that our preachers constantly keep this experience before our congregations as their privilege and duty. However, many of our good people do not experience as much of the blessing of the Lord as they might, and we exhort our people as a whole to watchfulness, prayerfulness and self-denial that God's presence among us may be manifested in frequent outpourings of the Holy Spirit in our midst.

The conference minutes show that seven or eight new societies have been organized the past few years. They now have a membership of 275 in full connection and fifty probationers. The meetings held that resulted in the organization of these new societies were made possible because we had an evangelistic fund. We know of no place where efforts put forth and money expended has brought greater returns than by this means. Therefore, we trust there will be no tendency to slacken our pace, and we urge upon the people the necessity of all contributing of their means and that as liberally as possible to the support of all aggressive evangelistic movements in the conference. Also that all pastors make a special effort to evangelize the unoccupied territory adjacent to their circuits, and that the laymen bid them Godspeed in this kind of work and support them in so doing. Our Vincennes society has bought a tent and held a new field meeting and organized a new class. They have an evangelistic board and are making extensive plans to push evangelistic work this next year. We hope other societies will follow their example, for we have large tracts of unworked territory within our borders and many open doors, as calls are coming from other cities for our work, but we have been hindered somewhat for lack of funds.

Again we are brought face to face with a new conference year, the old year has gone, the future is before us, and there is much to be done. We urge our people to more prayer, to a closer walk with God, to more diligent searching of the word of God, to more careful observance of the Sabbath, and a greater effort to attend all the means of grace. Finally, we believe God has blessed us with the best doctrines, a good Discipline, and some of the best people in the world; therefore, we ought to be perfectly satisfied to labor, suffer and rejoice in the Free Methodist Church.

IN MEMORIAM

J. S. OGG

One of the strong ministers of the Free Methodist Church has fallen. J. S. Ogg was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, a man of sterling character, a man with convictions, one who stood fearlessly for principle, and declared the whole counsel of God.

He was converted in 1881 and soon after united with the Free Methodist Church and was called to preach the gospel. His early ministry was spent in Western Kansas, pioneering the work of Free Methodism in that section of the country, where he with his noble wife endured uncomplainingly many hardships incident to such a life.

The great Head of the church looked and beheld his faithfulness and sacrifice, and soon rewarded him by calling him to higher places in His vineyard, where he served as pastor of some of the best charges in both the West Kansas and Kansas Conferences. He also served in each of these conferences as district elder for a number of years. He was elected ministerial delegate to General Conference three times.

As a Christian, Brother Ogg was thorough going, devout, reverent. He was a prince among preachers, deep in thought, clear in the presentation of his theme, pleasing in address, and fearless in his declaration of Bible truth and doctrine. He was faithful in his calling to the last, passing triumphantly to his reward from the parsonage home, Solomon, Kansas, May 9, 1923, where he was serving as pastor. His eternal hope was well secured, bringing great inspiration to him in his last sermons preached while on the earth on "The coming of the Lord."

The Kansas Conference sustains a great loss in his departure. May God help us to carry on the work that he loved so well and labored so faithfully to promote.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON REFORMS

Divorce—The divorce mill grinds on at the rate of about one to five marriages, so declared the Kansas City Star in the month of May last. This is an appalling fact. Measures should be taken at once to reduce divorce to the one scriptural cause, that of adultery. Parents, ministers, school teachers and legislators should promote sentiment in favor of the sacredness and perpetuity of the marriage relation. It is found that children in the home give a satisfaction and effect a union that powerfully operates against divorce. As the children increase in the home, separations grow less. Therefore the raising of children should be urged. A federal judge in the State of Washington declared that he had not been asked to give a divorce in the fifteen years of his judgeship where both parents were Christians, and but one or two where one of the parties was a Christian. He urged the teaching and preaching of the gospel, which makes for peace, as a preventive of the divorce.

Debt—"The borrower is servant to the lender."—Proverb. "He that goeth a borrowing goeth a sorrowing."—B. Franklin. Horace Greeley declared, "Hunger, cold, hard fare, contempt, superstition, unjust reproach are disagreeable, but debt is infinitely worse than them all. Never go into debt. Dread pecuniary obligations as you would a pestilence or a famine. If you have but fifty cents and can raise no more for a week, buy a peck of corn, parch it, and live on it rather than go in debt." "Live within your income" is a wise saying. "Owe no man anything."—Bible. There is a joy, a freedom, an independence in being free from debt. We have known a few good men who were in debt, but they groaned under the slavery and longed and prayed to be again free. It is a cloud upon one's reputation. Brethren, have we not been indifferent in this matter? If so, let us be so no longer. Let us be wise. Keep free from debt, teach our children to "live within their income." Thus shall we be upright and the "end of that man is peace."

Tobacco—The omnipresent evil. The total length of our steam railways in the United States is 368,682 miles. Place the cigars used in one year in the United States end to end, they make a line 545,145 miles long. Place the cigars used in our country in one year, end to end, we have a line 1,728,067 miles long, a line girding the earth sixty-nine times, at a moneyed waste of about $3,000,000,000, including the cost of pipes. But this does not include the millions of property burned each year caused by the tobacco fire. What a smoke! What a fire! What a waste! But money does not show the worst of it. The weakened body, enfeebled mind, the degraded habit, enslaved soul. These added to the moneyed waste, show the awful subject before us. Men, old and young, doctors, some ministers and women use it. It is deeply entrenched among us. How can we abolish it? Against it is the only right position for us. We as a church have taken this position since 1870—fifty-three years. We must hold this position and do all we can against it.

Hospitality—This is defined as, "Kind and generous reception and entertainment of strangers and friends." This good practise is not so generally indulged among us and others as in former years. Our general gatherings were urged and many attended. The free-will offerings of money and eats were abundant. In our homes the good spirit of hospitality should be indulged in freely, gladly, joyfully to the stranger, our friends, especially of like faith. Then life will be broader, happier. God would have us feel for our fellow man and brother in need and minister to them in necessary things. We have more now than formerly. We should therefore be more hospitable than ever before. The great benefit, in addition to the general good cheer and happiness, will be a conscious breaking up of our selfishness. Covetousness would be much reduced and life would be more satisfactory and useful. Brethren, let us give more heed to this practise.

MISCELLANEOUS

The conference was held as usual in Hermon, Los Angeles, on our own camp ground. Bishop William Pearce presided with great acceptability, and after an absence of eight years from this conference he met with a most cordial welcome from our people. In his addresses to the conference and his preaching he was at his best.

The new permanent tabernacle, which was officially termed the conference auditorium, a structure 100x120 feet and capable of seating more than two thousand, was completed in time to use this year. It is in every way suited to the purpose for which it was built. The new dining hall in which the cafeteria was conducted by the committee, was also a desirable addition to the equipment of the ground. The total expense of both was $7,000 nearly, and that amount was called for on Sunday morning. Very quickly $9,350 was provided in cash and subscriptions. After a masterly sermon, Bishop Pearce formally dedicated the auditorium. All other finances were well cared for as well. The funds provided for the evangelistic board amounted to $2,500. Cash offerings for camp meeting expenses, missions, home missions, the district elders, moving expenses of preachers, etc., brought the total amount raised during the meeting to nearly $15,000, and almost $5,000 of it was cash. Surely our people are good givers.

The Woman's Missionary Society reported more than $15,000 raised during the past year.

The camp meeting which preceded the conference one week and continued simultaneously with it, was a gracious season. There was no special invited help, but all of the ministers of the conference were abundant in labors, and the altar was usually filled. Many declared this to be the best meeting we have ever had.

Miss Stella Cobb, Wesley O. Smith and B. D. Button were ordained deacons, the latter a local deacon. W. C. Reynolds and Wesley O. Smith were ordained elders. The ordination of Wesley O. Smith was in view of his going out to mission work in the Dominican Republic.

There was a gain in membership of slightly over a hundred. Eight elders, one deacon and one preacher on trial were received by transfer.

A new policy for the support of the district elders was adopted. A budget was ordered and the quarterly conferences requested to direct payments into a common fund and the two district elders to share equally in its distribution. The plan is so simple and the equal distribution so just that it is a wonder no one thought of it before.

The name of Los Angeles Free Methodist Seminary was changed to the Los Angeles Pacific Junior College to comport with the work being done by the school. Prof. Paul R. Helsel, the new president, was present and labored and preached effectively during the meeting. He is well received by the conference.

A financial campaign to be known as the Forward Movement for the Junior College and Special Funds was ordered for the month of November. As applied to the school the California Conference is to cooperate in this movement. This movement contemplates raising during the next two years the sum of $25,000 for the school, and also to take care of the Special Stewardship Fund ordered by the recent General Conference, and the prorata of this conference in the $50,000 for missions asked by the officers of the General Missionary Board.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

I.—ON THE STATE OF THE WORK

As we view the mercies of God during the past year, we bow in humble gratitude to Him for His mercies, His presence and His power displayed throughout our borders.

In general it may be said that the spiritual tone of our people is strong and healthful and they are expecting large things from the Lord. However, we need to guard against conformity to the world in following the fashions of the day. We must hold to plainness of attire, shun indulgence in questionable worldly amusements, and avoid everything in practise that violates the sanctity and sacredness of the Sabbath.

With but few exceptions souls have been saved and believers sanctified on the various circuits or charges. The reports of pastors will show a modest increase in the membership on each of the three districts. There have been numerous revivals throughout the conference, and in many instances the pastors have been their own evangelists, which we consider a very healthy sign. But what is this compared with the great work assigned us? The question naturally arises, Why are we not more successful? No doubt the answer of Mr. Wesley would be, Because we are not more holy. Our greatest foes are the internal ones. The greatest danger is discouragement and loss of vision. And where there is no vision the people perish.

We need a revival, not a local shower, but a mighty cloudburst. We need it personally and as a church. If God will be pleased to send a world-wide, heaven-born, Holy Ghost revival, Christian Science, Russellism and every form of infidelity in the church will look like grasshoppers, and like Moses' rod it will swallow up all other "isms." Let us get back to the closet, back to Pentecost.

II.—ON EDUCATION

In the business world the captains of industry push that work the hardest which yields the largest returns upon the capital invested; and a basic industry upon which the welfare of the rest depends, receives the most careful attention of all. These same principles must be followed in the work of God if we are to realize its successful propagation and preservation.

In our school centers, without question, we are realizing larger returns from the investment of our prayers and means and labors than from any other department of our work, whether in home or foreign lands. The most priceless thing in the world is clean, pure, wholesome, intelligent young manhood and womanhood. This young life with its strong character and splendid ideals is the hope of the church and the bulwark of the nation. The future of church and state holds promise only in proportion as we produce and develop these highly essential qualities of Christian character and citizenship. This type of character is, in an eminent degree, a product of our schools. It is impossible to find more congenial conditions anywhere than is to be found in our schools for the culture of holy young lives.

Furthermore, the Free Methodist school has become the instrument of prime importance in the perpetuation of the church. On our small circuits, and the most of our circuits are small circuits, we are suffering almost a total loss of our young people. The great reason for this loss is that the young man or woman does not find the inducements of young associations there, and in many places, there are conditions that are positively and hurtfully in attractive to them. Both of these deterrents are practically eliminated from our school centers, and the results are that the great majority of our graduates are saved to Christ and the church.

Can we afford to let this great agency of the church suffer? In this conference we need to reemphasize the importance of the school we have in our midst. The other enterprises of the church and conference are exceedingly important, but this is of utmost importance, if not first. The thinning ranks of our falling veterans must be refilled, else all these other enterprises must fail for lack of workmen. Let us maintain this great recruiting station of the church, at any cost, and if there must be curtailment or retrenchment, if there must be suffering anywhere, let it not be the school. Crippling of any of these would mean loss to the church, but the crippling of the school would mean disaster.

III.—ON CHARITIES

We should be grateful to Almighty God that it has been the order of Providence to so guide in the affairs of the Free Methodist Church, that at this period of our existence we have three charitable institutions, viz., the Gerry Homes at Gerry, New York, the Woodstock Homes, at Woodstock, Illinois, and the Life Line rescue work at Kansas City, Missouri.

We should be reminded that these institutions are ever making demands upon us for acts of charity, and further that we as pastors are required to preach a sermon at each appointment once a year on practical charity, and take a collection for the poor. In the event that there is no poor on which to bestow it, the collection should be sent to one of the accredited institutions. We recommend that we cooperate with the superintendents of these charitable institutions in securing Easter offerings and in such other ways as may be deemed advisable.

MISCELLANEOUS

The sixty-fourth session of the Illinois Conference was held in the Free Methodist Church at Woodstock, Illinois, August 29-September 2, 1923, with Pastor J. M. Wolfe and wife and the society as hosts. These with able assistance rendered by Superintendent John D. Kelsey, of the Old People's Rest Home and Manager C. E. Maxwell, of the Chicago Industrial Home for Children, entertained the conference royally.

Bishop Walter A. Sellew presided very acceptably and his sermons and addresses to the conference were highly appreciated. Mrs. Sellew was also present.

After a trial of one year, the conference gave up the idea of trying to successfully man our work with two district elders and returned to the old custom, elected three.

Miss Helen I. Root, returned missionary from India, was present and delivered an inspiring address for the Woman's Missionary Society on Sunday afternoon.

Revs. W. B. Rose, Charles W. Wade, N. W. Fink, C. E. Maxwell and J. J. Hales were appreciated visitors.

MISCELLANEOUS

The fiftieth session of the New York Conference was held in the Presbyterian Church at Maple Crest, New York, September 19-23, 1923. We were glad to welcome again Bishop William H. Clark, who presided over a very harmonious session. His words of exhortation and advice, as well as efficient ministry of the Word will long be remembered. Nearly a thousand dollars each were raised in cash and subscriptions for evangelism and Woman's Missionary Society. In all, about $2,400 was raised during the session. During the year the Woman's Missionary Societies have raised nearly $11,000. On Sunday afternoon Mae Armstrong, missionary from Africa, gave a very interesting missionary address. After the Sunday-school session Sunday afternoon, L. R. Guier and H. B. Brenner also Frank Warren, of the Washington Conference, were ordained deacons. In the evening G. K. A. Haase was ordained elder and W. A. F. Millar, local elder.

The local pastor and society left nothing undone that could add comfort and satisfaction to our sojourn among the beautiful Catskills.

MISCELLANEOUS

The eleventh session of the Georgia and Florida Conference was held at St. Petersburg, Florida, September 19-23, 1923. It was a good conference in many ways. The spiritual tide was high. Both preachers and delegates seemed filled with blessing and courage for the future, and indications point to a successful year ahead. Bishop Sellaw was with us again, endearing himself to our hearts anew. We were royally entertained and enjoyed in many ways our few days' stay in the "Sunshine City." The new Free Methodist Church there would do us credit in any large city, and eloquently speaks of the faith and devotion of both pastor and people. The appointments were well received.

MISCELLANEOUS

The twenty-eighth annual session of the West Ontario Conference was held in connection with a camp meeting near Norwich, closing August 26. This was a new and great occasion to our people. The camp meeting commenced five days prior to the conference. There was no invited help, but the conference and visiting ministers were at their best and God honored their efforts with the salvation of a goodly number of souls. Much of the presence and power of God was felt, one service lasting long past midnight. Harmony and love seemed to prevail throughout. Bishop William H. Clark presided at the four harmonious sittings with grace and acceptability. Though somewhat frail in body on account of his bodily affliction and recent bereavement, he was able to attend to all business. His preaching was of a high order and we believe will have lasting effect. We could not help but love the man as he moved among us and spoke to us wonderful words of salvation. May the Lord strengthen him to fill this office for years to come. The missionary meeting Sabbath afternoon was ably conducted by Revs. J. W. Winans and W. R. McCready, two of our own ministers, who have spent a number of years in Santo Domingo and India. The missionary offering amounted to $100 and a liberal amount was raised for other purposes.

Though there were many changes in the appointments, yet these were well received. We face a new year with courage and determination. May it be our best. We were pleased to have with us the following ministers from the East Ontario Conference: R. Burnham, M. S. Benn, W. Zurbrigg, S. B. Griffith, W. M. Simpson, the latter being much used in the proclaiming of the Word.

MISCELLANEOUS

The North Michigan Conference held its forty-eighth annual session at Manton, August 7-11, 1923, in connection with a camp meeting which commenced one week prior to the date of the conference session. There was a very good attendance from all parts of the territory embraced in the conference; there being upwards of 175 tents on the grounds. Quite a number of seekers were at the altar during the meeting and several prayed through to victory either in the forgiveness of sins or the entire cleansing of their natures.

Rev. E. A. Andrews, of the Ohio Conference, had charge of the evangelistic services. His sermons were very instructive and spiritual and, we trust, brought deep conviction to many hearts, even to those who did not submit to God during these meetings. Revs. B. H. Alberts, C. M. DeFoe and G. W. Bodine, of other conferences, were present and rendered valuable assistance in the meetings.

Helen I. Root, returned missionary from Japan, was in attendance and held conferences and public meetings for the young people especially, in the interest of the Junior Missionary societies. The Woman's Missionary Society held an inspiring meeting Sunday afternoon. Miss Root delivered the principal address to a large audience who gave evidence of their appreciation by giving an offering of $500 in cash and subscriptions.

Bishop W. A. Sellew presided at the six very harmonious sittings that were held. He is truly a master of assemblies. His great ability seemed unabated. He preached three times during the conference with much of the unction of the Holy Ghost. Bishop Sellew has a large place in the hearts of the preachers and laymen of this conference, and we trust it is not unreasonable to hope he will survive to preside over this conference four years hence.

It is rather humiliating to have to report a large loss of members during the last year, but once more we turn our hearts and hands to the labors of another year, trusting God will enable us to save many to Christ and the church.

Sunday morning Bishop Sellow ordained the following persons deacons: Charles Carnahan, Chester Smith, Harry Salsbury, Daniel Skanes, Claude Van-Vorst, Erman Weidman, Frank E. Clifford; the last named is local deacon. In the afternoon A. L. Howlett was ordained elder.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON SABBATH SCHOOLS

Inasmuch as the Sunday-school is a part of the program of church work, and looked upon by many as good for children only, we desire to call your attention to a few things:

1. It is a church service and as such demands your attendance, attention, support and prayers. Attending such is an act of worship, and much spiritual food and encouragement may be gained. No member is a loyal Free Methodist who absents himself continuously from the school. When professed Christians will place themselves in every service so as to live up to their prayers, "Lord, use me," our schools will no longer lack for the much needed teachers necessary to lead the young to God. Thus it becomes your duty and mine to do all we can to train our children in Christian work.

2. The Sunday-school is the recruiting station of the church.

3. No Sunday-school is what it ought to be until it sees the children converted. Hence, the need of greater evangelistic efforts in the school, the need of people who pray until they have prayed, the need of you—members of the Free Methodist Church.

4. Since the great problem of the nation is one of morals, and the problem of morals always one of religious training, and usually religious training from the Sunday-school, it behooves us as a church to give greater attention to our Sunday-schools. No muscle becomes strong until it is used repeatedly. Hence, the need of using our young people and training them for the various departments of our church work. "Train up a child in the way he should go" applies to the church as well as to parents. Looking over any Sunday-school one can see qualities requisite for leaders, teachers, executives, pastors, in fact every quality necessary to meet the needs of the future church. Therefore, it becomes our duty as a church to develop those qualities by using them. Where is a better place than in the Sunday-school? If those in authority will on their knees ask God to inspire their hearts to things that will interest the young people and children and then prayerfully follow them, no Sunday-school need be dry, the same every Sunday, or not interesting. When our Sabbath-schools are neglected our most promising field of evangelism is neglected. Better, by far, and easier, to stand at the forks of the road and direct them the way that leads to Christ than to stand half way down the road to ruin and try to persuade them to return.

Our Free Methodist Sunday-schools—God bless them; our superintendents and teachers—God inspire them; our children—God save them; pastors and laymen—look, learn, act.

MISCELLANEOUS

The forty-first annual session of the Pittsburgh Conference was held in the Free Methodist Church, Apollo, Pennsylvania, October 3-7, 1923.

Bishop W. H. Clark presided. His addresses to the conference were very timely and much appreciated. May they bring forth fruit. Amen. His sermon on Sabbath morning was a great one and never to be forgotten. Long live the good bishop. One of the excellent things in connection with this session was the six splendid young men who joined the conference on trial. God bless them.

The following visiting preachers were introduced to the conference and invited to honorary seats: B. P. Hogan and J. F. McClelland, of the Oil City Conference; H. A. Baldwin and C. A. Mitchell, of the Ohio Conference; Earl F. Eakin and G. W. Garlock, of the Genesee Conference; S. F. Heilman, of the Southern California Conference; F. M. Brickley, formerly of the Evangelical Church.

ON STATE OF THE WORK

We should be profoundly thankful to God for the privilege of being Free Methodists—for a church that stands for Bible regeneration and holiness. While other churches are distracted with so-called “new thought,” and their preachers freely denying the deity of Christ, the virgin birth, the inspiration of the Bible, the Bible account of creation, salvation from sin, eternal punishment of the wicked, and other vital truths, God has blessed us with a loyal ministry and membership so that higher criticism has not secured a foothold among us. We stand as a unit for Christ, the Bible and full salvation from sin right here in this present world.

Reports from various parts of the work indicate that God has been pleased to graciously pour out His Holy Spirit upon our camp meetings, our district meetings, our quarterly meetings, our revivals and other gatherings, for which we should be humbly grateful.

We have received from our fathers a wonderful church and in spite of foes without or foes within we should stand by the old landmarks and earnestly contend for the faith, both doctrinally and experimentally. The church is not apt to maintain this high standard unless as preachers and members we earnestly contend for it.

While God is still with us and blessing us, we think we can see some little foxes that are endangering our vine. The main reason we have for existence as a church is to advocate and maintain a high standard of piety and Bible holiness. It is not enough for us to conform to certain doctrines and rules, but we must maintain a goodly degree of spiritual life. Wherever this life is present and manifest there will be growth and development. However, growth and development do not mean change either in doctrine or practise. No matter how large an oak tree becomes it still retains every characteristic of oak trees—fiber, leaf, and acorn. Just so growth in grace will not mean any changing from the characteristics of grace, but simply the unfolding of more and more of the same thing. By the process of grafting, a tree may be completely changed in appearance and fruit.

Your committee fear that a tendency to graft into the Free Methodist Church some things out of harmony with its original simplicity, spirituality and unworldliness has appeared.

We are convinced that the introduction of the social “eats” and “games” into the meetings of Sunday-school classes and other gatherings is a scion of worldliness which can never bear the fruits of grace. We do not think this has extended very far, but since games, picnics, parties, eats, etc., have been so frequently and so approvingly mentioned in our Light and Life Evangel during the past few years, we fear the influence and raise a note of warning.

Your committee are also informed that some of our members have become members of secret labor unions while others maintain a working relation with them. We consider this a departure from our rule on secret societies which if unchecked will lay the foundation for the abandonment of our anti-secrecy rule.

We would not minimize the difficult conditions existing in many of our industrial centers, but we must remember that Jesus has not put us here to find the easiest way through this world, but the right way. Therefore, whoever will follow Him will be under the necessity of denying himself and taking up his cross to follow Him.

It is also rumored that some of our members have even united with the Ku Klux Klan. This organization is just one more added to the many secret societies, and the taking of its oaths makes it impossible for any of us to be associated with it and be a consistent Free Methodist.

Brethren, let us not allow these things to be grafted into our precious church. Let us kindly but firmly return to the landmarks of our fathers.

A criticizing and fault-finding spirit has caused some societies trouble and we urge all our members to beware of everything along this line. Let us love one another for "Love is of God."

We believe a good many of our people should be more plain and modest in their apparel. We realize that the advent of ready-to-wear woman's apparel makes it increasingly difficult for our sisters to be as plain and modest as otherwise, but would urge renewed diligence along this line.

A note of warning also seems necessary on the line of obedience to the laws of the church. A tendency to ignore and set aside discipline for personal convenience or preference will work damage if not abandoned.

In some parts of our work there seems to be a toning down in personal piety, devotion and spirituality. This perhaps is more a lack of attaining to the depths and heights of experience than an abandonment of the faith, but we should renew our efforts to be at our very best for God.

In spite of the little foxes that menace our vine to which attention has been called, and others, we believe we have the best (if not the largest) church in the land. We love her doctrines and her blessed pilgrims. We praise God for the manifestation of His Holy Spirit in our midst and we call upon every preacher and member to help keep the church separate from the world, clean and free, blessed and useful.

In temporal matters we have enjoyed a year of prosperity. Nearly every society in the conference has either repaired or improved its property or paid off or reduced indebtedness thereon. Three new churches have been erected, one of which replaces one that had burned last year. Salaries and benevolences have been liberally supplied.

Statistics show that the different districts have gained or lost in membership as follows: Butler District, gain, 85; Pittsburgh District, gain, 5; Fairmont District, gain, 2; Uniontown District, loss, 25; Rochester District, loss, 68. Full members, gain, 9; probationers, loss, 10.

We consider that the reception on trial of so many earnest, enthusiastic and promising young and middle-aged preachers is an omen of good and of God's favor, and we would go forth with new courage to drive the battle on.

MISCELLANEOUS

The East Ontario Conference held its twenty-eighth annual session at Newmarket, Ontario, August 29-September 2, 1923.

We were pleased to have with us during the session a number of the ministerial brethren of the West Ontario Conference, J. M. Eagle, J. W. Peach, S. S. Bailey, Sister Alice Walls, C. E. Walls, and J. W. Winans, missionary to the Dominican Republic.

Bishop William H. Clark presided with his usual ability. He came to us with his heart saddened by his recent bereavement and has the sincere sympathy of the entire conference. The manner in which he handled so expeditiously the great amount of conference business was thoroughly appreciated by all. His addresses were helpful, inspiring and to the point. He preached twice during the session under the anointing of the Holy Spirit. It will be many a day before that Sunday morning sermon, on Psalm 61:5, is forgotten by those who were privileged to hear it.

Without exception this session of conference was the most spiritual we ever attended. The blessing of God made even the business sessions a means of grace, and the conference goes forth to the labors of another year with boldness and courage due to the fact that "the best of all is, God is with us."

The missionary meeting held on Sunday afternoon was very encouraging and the offering taken amounted to $1,600. We all thanked God and still praise Him for His presence in all the sessions and in every service.

MISCELLANEOUS

The forty-first session of the Louisiana Conference was held near Nickel, Louisiana, with Antioch Free Methodist society. Bishop Walter A. Sellew presided with acceptability. His sermons were seasoned with grace, and were doubtless more highly appreciated than ever before among us as a conference. Sister Sellew gave a very good missionary address Sabbath afternoon. Rev. B. F. Hudson had been with us engaged in evangelistic services for thirteen days prior to the convening of the conference. His labors were not in vain, as several were saved and others sanctified during the meeting. Rev. E. Drew was with us from the start, directing the battle as district elder. The pilgrims and friends entertained the conference with the assistance of the friends from Summerville.

MISCELLANEOUS

The first annual session of the Japan Conference was held at Osaka, in the First Free Methodist Church, on Nippon Bashi Suji.

W. B. Olmstead, missionary secretary, presided with fairness and marked ability. Although the use of an interpreter was necessary, business was done with dispatch. Special mention should be made of the evening sermons which were searching and spiritual. The Sabbath morning address was a clear and forceful presentation of our cardinal doctrines. Friday evening will long be remembered as a day of decision. At the close of the missionary address twenty promising young men came to the altar to consecrate their lives to the Master's service, while nineteen more young men and women raised their hands, asking for prayers, saying that they were contemplating giving their lives to Christian work. Much of the blessing of the Lord was manifest throughout the conference and naturally unity and harmony prevailed. Strong appeals were made for self-support and we believe that the church as a whole received a new vision along this line and also in the work of self-evangelism.

"Special honorary members" having a seat in the conference are Minnie K. Hessler, Eva B. Millican, Lillian O. Pickens, Gertrude Aylard.

Mrs. W. B. Olmstead and Mrs. Gladys Wagner were invited to honorary seats. The following (pastors) supply and delegates from "mission churches" and Bible women were invited to honorary seats in the conference: Supplies, R. Sasakawa, O. Uwai, Y. Nagai, K. Haneda, T. Endo; delegates, K. Kanada, E. Nomura, A. Nishimoto, Mr. Shidachi, Mrs. Nakamura; Bible women, Mrs. T. Sunamoto, F. Kishinami. B. Horiuchi, an elder, entitled to conference membership, was absent. Y. Nishizaka was elected delegate to the World's Sunday School Convention to meet in Scotland, the conference assuming no financial responsibility. The executive committee of the mission, having been given power to appoint workers to mission churches, was invited to meet with the stationing committee of the conference as advisory members. The conference was entertained by the Osaka First Church in a very commendable way. Excellent papers were read on Education, Sunday-schools, Aggressive Evangelism, Reforms, and Publications.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee met in its regular annual session at the Free Methodist Publishing House, 1132 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, October 23, 1923.

The following members were present: W. A. Sellew, W. Pearce, W. H. Clark, D. S. Warner, M. B. Miller, J. T. Logan, J. A. Watson, G. W. Griffith, B. J. Vincent, W. N. Coffee, C. A. Lowell, H. Hoyt, J. M. Daniels, G. J. Archer, A. G. Ball.

The following were elected directors of the Publishing House: W. H. Clark, D. S. Warner, M. B. Miller, J. M. Daniels, G. W. Griffith, J. A. Watson, B. J. Vincent.

The Church and Parsonage Aid Society considered the claims for aid and granted the following: Dallas, Texas, $175; Grand Bay, Alabama, $37.50; Bates, South Dakota, $100.

Permission was granted the Mission of Redeeming Love Association to sell property in St. Louis.

After considering the question of a proposed change in the boundary line between the Michigan and East Michigan Conferences, referred to the committee by the General Conference, and hearing from representatives of each conference, the committee went into executive session and voted to change the boundary in the vicinity of Detroit to read as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of Royal Oak township; thence north along the western boundary of said Royal Oak township to the 12-mile road; thence along the 12-mile road through Royal Oak township to the eastern boundary of Warren township; thence south to the base line.

The secretary reported that three communications had been received offering sites for the Publishing House: Guthrie, Oklahoma; Owosso, Michigan; Greenville, Illinois. These were read and placed on file. Representation of Jackson, Michigan, was made by Peter White, of Spring Arbor. The committee voted to extend a formal invitation for the offering of sites for the Publishing House in harmony with the action of the General Conference.

After hearing from representatives of the North Indiana and Wabash Conferences, the committee voted to change the boundary line between the two conferences.

A petition from the New York Conference petitioning for a division of the conference was received. After a lengthy review of the accompanying paper and representations from members of the conference who were present, the committee voted to postpone action for one year.

The grounds of an appeal in the case of F. E. Ambrose, of the New York Conference, were examined, and the committee voted that the grounds of appeal were not sufficient to warrant entertainment of the same, and denied the appeal.

Considerable time was spent in executive session considering points of law in a series of questions submitted to the committee. The following decisions were rendered:

1. That where a member of the church is penalized by being placed upon probation for a certain specified period, that at the expiration of that time he is automatically restored to full membership.
2. That when a member of a quarterly conference has been placed on probation, and such person has accepted the penalty, such penalty should be considered valid and should be carried out as penalized.
3. That the laws enacted by the General Conference of 1923 are not retroactive unless they were stated so to be in the enactment.
4. That a sentence of probation imposed prior to the General Conference of 1923 carries with it a suspension of all ministerial functions.

Rev. J. B. Lutz was unanimously elected editor of the Sunday School Worker for the quadrennium.

By request of the General Sunday School Board the committee voted to change the title of Arnold's Practical Commentary to The Light and Life Practical Commentary.

The name of J. T. Logan was ordered placed in the list of corresponding editors of the Free Methodist in place of A. Sims.

The following persons were elected a permanent stewardship committee: W. A. Sellew, G. W. Griffith and J. M. Daniels. This committee was authorized to make a selection of articles used in the special stewardship number of the Free Methodist and have the same made into leaflets for distribution.

The committee voted to fix the Special Stewardship Fund for 1924-5 at $50,000, divided as follows: Home Missions, $15,000; General Missions, $15,000; Superannuates, $15,000; Evangelism, $5,000.

MEETING OF THE GENERAL MISSIONARY BOARD

The annual session of the General Missionary Board of the Free Methodist Church of North America was held in the Board Room, at 1132 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, October 18 to 23, 1923. The president of the Board, Bishop William Pearce, presided at each sitting. Eighteen of the twenty-one members were present.

Only a brief report was read from the missionary secretary, W. B. Olmstead, owing to the fact that he had prepared an extended report covering all of the fields for the General Conference, held in June. (This report is published in leaflet form and may be had by writing to the office.) In harmony with the action of the General Conference and the Missionary Board, the missionary secretary was on his world tour of our missions, being in Japan at the time the Board convened. In his absence, Bishop Pearce was appointed by the Directors to assume the duties of assistant secretary, with the assistance of Miss Cook, office secretary, and Newton W. Fink, treasurer.

The following is a resume of the business transacted during the session:

Members of the different standing committees were elected. Reports from the field secretary and treasurer were read, and the General Conference evangelists reported.

Rev. E. P. Ashcraft was elected superintendent of the China mission and Rev. H. F. Johnson of the work in the Dominican Republic. On the India field Rev. S. D. Casberg was elected chairman of the Executive Committee. As the Japan mission has been organized into a conference this fall, similar to the organization of the Africa Mission Conference, it was not necessary to elect such officers for either of these fields. Rev. B. L. Beegle was elected superintendent of the Panama and Canal Zone work; Rev. August Youngren, superintendent of home mission work among the Japanese; B. H. Pearson, superintendent of Mexican work, and Rev. C. L. Manning, chairman of the Executive Committee of home mission work in the Northern California field.

Treasurers were elected as follows: India, Louise D. Calkins; Japan, Gertrude Aylard; China, Mattie J. Peterson; Dominican Republic, Eva Whiffen; Panama and Canal Zone, B. L. Beegle; home mission work, Northern California, C. L. Manning, and Southern California, Clara R. Freeland.

Directors of the General Missionary Board for the coming year were elected as follows: Bishop William Pearce, Bishop W. A. Sellow, W. B. Olmstead, Peter White, Mary L. Coleman, J. M. Critchlow and W. W. Vinson.

The following persons were elected general missionaries: Mrs. Rebecca E. Sellow, Mrs. Harriet M. Baker, Mrs. Emma L. Hogue, Mrs. Minnie L. Olmstead and Mrs. Mary L. Coleman.

Delegates were elected to the Foreign Missions Conference to be held January 8-11, 1924: Bishop and Mrs. Sellow, Mrs. Coleman and Newton W. Fink.

Furloughs were granted to Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft, of China, and Miss Nellie A. Reed, of Inhambane, Africa, in the spring of 1924; also to Miss Helen O. Abrams, of the Dominican Republic, West Indies, during the coming year.

Requests from the mission fields for new missionaries were referred to the Board of Directors and no appointments were made.

Rev. J. P. Brodhead, for many years a missionary to Africa, who has returned broken in health and is now in California, sent in his resignation as a board missionary and it was accepted.

Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Jacobs and Miss Mae P. Armstrong were given permission to spend two months in Lisbon, Portugal, on their way back to Africa, for the purpose of continuing their studies in Portuguese.

Permission was given to erect a hospital building in connection with the Mexican mission in the city of Los Angeles, which work is expected to become self-supporting in a few years.

Miss Marion Eason, missionary in Kentucky, tendered her resignation, which was accepted.

Miss Marjorie Burt, who has been engaged by the Sunday School Board as a missionary in Kentucky, was listed as a regular worker under the Missionary Board and it was voted to send another lady worker to that field.

The Executive Committee of the W. M. S. turned over from their special funds, $4,500 to the Missionary Board toward the liquidation of its home mission debt. This generous gift was received with a special vote of thanks.

It was voted to sell two lots from the tract of land purchased in Osaka, Japan, for the Bible Training School and with the proceeds from the sale of these lots together with an appropriation of $3,000 made by the Board and what will be given by the Japanese Christians, erect an administration building and boys' dormitory for the Bible Training School.

An appropriation was made for the purchase of a lot and the erection of a house for the resident missionary in the city of Kobe, Japan. Appropriations were made toward the new buildings needed at Inhambane, and for a school building at Inhamaxafo station, Africa; also for the enlargement and repairing of mission property on the other fields.

The committees for the different fields spent much time in reading minutes of the annual meetings of missionaries, recommendations from committees and requests. These were given careful consideration and reports were presented to the Board for final action. In this way the details of the work in our five foreign fields and at home, which are too numerous to report here, were carefully looked after.

The entire amount appropriated for the foreign fields was $160,955.77; for salaries of missionaries on furlough, sending out and returning missionaries, assisting students, office expenses, etc., $30,875.00; and for home missions, $17,122.45; making a grand total of $208,953.22.

It was ordered to hold the next annual meeting on October 23, 1924.

It was also voted to request the church to observe the time from May 19 to 25 as a week of self-denial for foreign missions.

The Board gave its endorsement to "The Self-Denial Home Mission Fund" of a penny a day explained in B. H. Pearson's leaflet.

At the close of the session a special season of prayer was held in behalf of our missionary secretary.

The directors met at the close of the Board meetings and passed on the work done. They voted to hold their next sitting on the 18th of March, 1924.

FIELD SECRETARY'S REPORT

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL MISSIONARY BOARD:—

My report at this time covers the months of July, August and September, since the General Conference, at which time I made my report for the quadrennium. Accompanied by Mrs. Baker and our daughter, we have assisted in four camp meetings in New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Washington, D. C., and also attended the Michigan Conference, making a distance traveled of 4,604 miles, and have addressed the people on an average of six times a week. We have secured $1,965 in cash and $4,663 in subscriptions for missions. My expenses for the three months have been wholly paid from offerings given me for assisting in meetings. A detailed account of all expenses is filed with the treasurer. Respectfully submitted.

F. L. BAKER.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE FREE METHODIST CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA

W. M. S. Executive Committee

The Woman's Missionary Society Executive Committee convened in twentieth session at their headquarters in Chicago on October 16, 1923, at 10 a. m., the president, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, in the chair. Mrs. R. E. Sellow, Miss A. P. Carpenter, Mrs. L. C. Jensen, Mrs. Julia A. Muffitt, Mrs. E. L. Hogue, Mrs. L. B. Griffith, Mrs. Carrie T. Burritt, Mrs. Agnes Benn, and Mrs. C. T. Bolles answered the calling of the roll. Mrs. E. L. MacGeary and Miss Harriet E. Sheldon were detained at home.

The first half hour was spent in earnest devotion and appeal for divine help and guidance in the work. There were tokens of God's favor.

The president in her report read some interesting letters from the traveling secretary, Miss Helen I. Root, who is working through the Western conferences this winter to organize, to instruct, and to further the work through coming in touch with the local societies.

The department secretaries and superintendents gave reports which were for the most part encouraging, though were not as full as usual on account of the short time since the quadrennial meeting.

The treasurer reported the total receipts for the year as $121,941.32.

The corresponding secretary could not make a full or correct report on account of the failure of nine conferences to respond to appeals for reports. The final report is expected to show some general gain in memberships, though not what it should be if all locals had reported.

The Tidings agent reported a very encouraging increase in subscriptions since the quadrennial meeting plan for advancement was launched, though some conferences have not yet responded to the request. Many more subscriptions are needed.

The literature agent reported books and leaflets sold to the amount of $3,309.09—a fine gain for the year.

The report of the mission study secretary showed an increase in the use of the mission study books, in the reading of mission literature, and in the holding of workers' conferences.

The home missions secretary reported $17,791.99 raised and sent to the treasurer, a gain of $6,919.19 over last year. Thirty-two of the forty-three conferences had reported their benevolences to her.

The superintendent of young people's societies reported the organization of several new conference societies since the quadrennial meeting, and there was much discussion of plans for the future, which were encouraging. A handbook for the young people's societies was adopted.

The report of the junior work was read by the president in the absence of the superintendent. Cradle roll boxes and certificates are to be furnished.

The committee passed strong recommendations against the appropriating of funds for local purposes not in harmony with Missionary Board appropriations.

Candidates for the field were considered. A letter to the president from Miss Marion Eason announcing and giving her reasons for her resignation from her relation to the Missionary Board was read. She urged that other workers be sent to continue the work.

There was much consideration of methods for the furtherance of plans suggested at the quadrennial meeting. MRS. C. T. BOLLES, Cor. Sec.

Report of the W. M. S. Corresponding Secretary, 1922-1923

The change of name at the quadrennial meeting in Corunna, Michigan, in June of this year, from Woman's Foreign Missionary Society to Woman's Missionary Society was not an indication of a backward move, but rather one that might better represent and include the increased and widening activities in seeking to bring to Christ the many, many heathen in our homeland. Openings for work everywhere are presented, and our need is for more Spirit-born devotion that will result in offerings of men and women and money equal to the providential opportunities. Prayer is the key. Jesus said, "Pray ye, therefore."

The quadrennial meeting was more generally attended and many encouraging reports were given. Plans were made to heed the command, "Lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes."

One practical evidence of this was the election of a traveling secretary, Miss Helen I. Root, who is devoting her time to coming into personal touch with local societies in conference after conference to "strengthen" our stakes.

More thorough reporting is planned for the mission study secretaries, the home missions secretaries (including all home benevolences), and the foreign box committees. Each one is expected to report to her department officer just ahead of her, instead of to the corresponding secretary. New blanks have been issued for this, as well as those for the young people and juniors. It is important that treasurers and corresponding secretaries use more carefully and promptly these blanks provided for them. New Standards have been adopted for all societies. Cradle roll certificates and mite boxes, as well as thank-offering boxes are ready for purchase at a small price from Miss A. P. Carpenter, 1134 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, where blanks and Constitutions and By-laws can be had for the postage sent with definite order. Use them all—to be efficient. Many leaflets are furnished for those who want to invest in good service, and all can do this.

The home missions work has developed greatly in the last quadrennium. Indians in Ontario and California have some of our attention. Among the mountain whites larger investments have been made, and real growth has been made in developing the work on the Pacific Coast among the Japanese and the Mexicans. But all this is now under the direction of the Missionary Board. The W. M. S. raised last year $17,791.99 for home missions, a gain of $6,919.19 over the year previous. A leaflet with suggestive plans has been issued for our help. The "penny-a-day" self-denial plan has been endorsed for the W. M. S. for the young people and the juniors. Proceeds from this plan for good education in giving will be used for home missions. There are thirteen of the conferences that raised more than the quota of $1.00 per active member for home missions. Of these, Southern California, Illinois and South Dakota have raised more than $3.00 per member and receive a gold star in the records of the general secretary. The other ten receive a blue star—Kansas, North Michigan, Susquehanna, California, Washington, Central Illinois, Michigan, Oregon, Southern Oregon and North Indiana. Benevolences have increased.

The literature agent, Miss A. P. Carpenter, sold more books and leaflets last year than ever before.

Reading campaigns and contests have been profitable with some.

Mission study is on the increase in many societies, with great profit.

Some encouraging reports are as follows:

Arkansas and Southern Missouri reports, "We have had a very good year, and one new society already organized."

Colorado is much encouraged, is to furnish a hospital room in Africa.

East Texas had a good gain all around.

Georgia and Florida is buying a motorcycle for India.

Kansas held daily workers' conferences at camp meeting.

Michigan is careful to hold regular meetings.

Minnesota and Northern Iowa finds mission study very helpful. They need leaders.

Missouri is sure to move on with her fine young people interested.

Nebraska is organizing in new fields.

North Dakota reports 120 books read. They have 169 members in conference, and 195 total missionary membership.

Oregon is very active along benevolent lines, reporting 1,152 calls made.

Oil City has fresh "vision," has change of officers, reports good gain for year.

South Dakota reports six days workers' conferences at camp meeting. They published a Conference Bulletin—fine.

A study of the statistical report reveals some unusual conditions which may not be all real, but might be the result of poor reporting. The loss in membership appears to be largely among the juniors. Look at these figures:

Loss of juniors in Genesee Conference, 206; Wabash, 173; East Ontario, 114; Southern California, 84; Pittsburgh, 69; Kansas, 63; and six others lost more than 25. The largest gain in juniors was in Michigan, 48; Oil City, 41; New York, 32; South Dakota, 22.

The loss of young people shows mostly in Pittsburgh, 154; California, 60; Michigan, 48. The gain was largely in South Dakota, 138; East Michigan, 128; Central Illinois, 49; Oil City, 42; Kansas, 40.

In honorary members Pittsburgh gained 65 and East Michigan, 31.

In active members the greatest loss was in Michigan, 79; Iowa, 62. In gain Oil City had 94; Pittsburgh, 79; Ohio, 66; Central Illinois and Colorado, each 64.

In total membership there is a strange showing (reporting must be faulty), for Wabash Conference shows loss of 367; Genesee, 189; Michigan, 159; Susquehanna, 102; East Ontario, 93; Pittsburgh, 86; Southern California, 83. But there is gain in total in East Michigan, 252; Oil City, 166; Ohio, 101; Illinois, 89; New York, 66; Minnesota and Northern Iowa, 52; but not enough to save there being a loss of 500 in the whole. May this stir every officer to do more correct work.

There has been a gain of 43 new societies in 12 conferences, of which East Michigan has 11, but perhaps more remarkable that in Missouri there was 4 gain.

Ohio shows the largest gain in Tidings subscriptions; Pittsburgh and Susquehanna come next.

During this quadrennium we hope for greater results from concerted efforts from the youngest junior society to the oldest member and longest organized W. M. Society. The promise is, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." This implies more intense earnestness and love and prayer on our part, and the reward is most gracious. Amen. Humbly submitted,

MRS. C. T. BOLLES, Cor. Sec.

ADDENDA AND ERRATA

California—The superannuate claim of Rev. L. H. Mulholland is $250 instead of $150.

Colorado—Mrs. Nellie Whitmore's name should appear as member of Sunday-school board in place of W. W. Loomis who resigned. The pastor's support for the following circuits is as follows instead of as published: Denver District—Colorado Springs, $895.92; parsonage rent, $300.00; Colorado Springs, W. End, $199.60; Boulder, $520.54. Pueblo District—Canon City, $830.25; parsonage rent, $150. San Juan District—Durango, $1,076.59; parsonage rent, $300.00; Bayfield and Oxford, $85.85; Ignacio and Spring Creek, $222.79. Total for all Pastors' Support, $9,886.28. Total for Parsonage Rent, $1,672.00. These mistakes were caused by the secretary getting the figures in the wrong column.

North Indiana—The address of Rev. J. A. Watson is 937 S. 17th Street.

Southern California—G. A. Loomis, superannuated without claim. In list of appointments, Los Angeles District, add, Sawtelle, Emma Suess.

Wabash—Add name of Mary E. Jones to conference Sunday-school board.
